

WILDLIFE CAPTURE AND TRANSPORT TRAINING

Sponsored by Wildlife In Need Emergency Response of Pennsylvania, Inc.

“This entertaining and enlightening course covers the basics of wildlife capture in the field including legal issues, safety, equipment, recognizing true emergencies, proper capture and handling techniques, public relations and education.”

Presented by Peggy Hentz from Red Creek Wildlife Center, Inc.

May 5, 2018

U.S. Army Corp of Engineers
2442 Kelly Rd.
Hermitage PA 16148

8:00A.M. – 3:00P.M.

Register at one of the following websites:

www.pawr.com

www.wildlifeedu.com

www.redcreekwildlifecenter.com

Cost is $50.00 per person

Classroom is limited to 35 people

This course is pre-requisite for anyone interested in being called out to capture wildlife by an answering service or dispatcher.

One of the goals of Wildlife In Need (WIN) Emergency Response of Pennsylvania, Inc. is to have Capture and Transport (C & T) permittees in each county of Pennsylvania to respond to wildlife that are injured, sick or orphaned in a timely matter, and arrange for transport to a Pa. Licensed Wildlife Rehabilitator or veterinary clinic for treatment.